

About our Trainer

Our Trainer, Annie Meldrum, is a Certified Professional Trainer and Canine Behaviorist. She has been training dogs since 1991 and professionally since 1996.

Annie is a former Police Officer with over 10 years of service in law enforcement. As a Police Officer she was fortunate enough to work with Police K9/Handler teams and assisted in various training exercises. She left law enforcement to pursue her love and her passion...Dog Training.

In 1996, Annie attended National K9 School for Dog Trainers in Columbus, Ohio. She spent six weeks living on campus studying dogs 24/7. This included many areas of training, as well as canine behavior and psychology, breed traits and characteristics, genetics, canine health and disease, and general health, care, grooming and nutrition.

She graduated from the intensive Master Trainer Course as a Certified Professional Trainer and Canine Behaviorist. Her training certification includes: Canine Behavior, Basic and Advanced Obedience, Personal Protection, Police K9, Tracking, Search and Rescue, Scent Discrimination/Drug Detection and Handicap Assistance.

Annie also continues her education and expertise by attending various training seminars and workshops throughout the year and around the country. Gen is a rescued Doberman and was slated for euthanasia. I was (at least) her fifth placement at only about 2 years of age. She is a very intelligent, very willing, and very loving dog. Please consider adoption, and spay and neuter your pets!
